This is a summary of information obtained from a review of all references to the subject contained in Bureau files except main file references. All references containing data identical or probably identical with the subject have been included except those listed at the end of this summary as not being reviewed. No distortion or alteration of the facts set forth in the original material has been made except as set forth in footnotes.

It will be noted that the serial number of each reference is contained in a "source block," setting forth in most instances, a description of the serial and the original source of the information reported therein. The number appearing in parentheses between each source block is the page number of the search slip upon which that reference is listed. The term "SI" preceding a reference indicates that the serial so designated contains the same information as the foregoing serial. Unless there is a statement to the contrary, such information is taken from the same source.

Information from outside agencies has been given a security classification, the same as the incoming communication. Information taken from all origination within the Bureau and its field offices has not been classified regardless of what the original communication gave a security classification.

THIS SUMMARY WAS PREPARED FOR USE AT THE BUREAU OF SOVIET AFFAIRS AND IS NOT TO BE RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC WITHOUT PERMISSION.

In the newspaper "Forum Und Tribuene", 200 West 72nd Street, New York, (date not given) appeared a letter written by the editor to the readers of the newspaper. The editor stated that they were proud to count themselves as part of the Progressive Press of America. They saw their duty in serving the German-speaking Jewish group, whose language they spoke in more than one sense. On the list of co-workers appeared the name Albert Einstein.

Translations from the German enclosed with SAC Philadelphia memo to the Bureau, dated January 1, 1949.

12 The "Worker" of December 26, 1948 carried an article
13 entitled "Crusade Launched to Defend '12' Lobby in Capital".
14

15 This article stated ~~another~~ that William L. Patterson, 16 executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, sponsor of the 17 Washington Conclave, told the "Worker" that a special report on the 18 case of the 12 would be delivered at the legislative conference on 19 January 17.

20
21 This article stated further that among those sponsoring 22 the conference, at which approximately 800 delegates were expected
23 included such notables as Hugh Bryson, president of the CIO Marine 24 Cooks and Stewards, Dr. Albert Einstein and others.

12 The "Daily Worker", of December 15, 1948, carried an 13 article entitled "Crusade to Capital January 18 Will Urge Civil 14 Rights Laws".

16 This article stated in part that the Civil Rights
17 Congress had announced on the previous day that thousands of people
18 would come to Washington on January 18 in a gigantic "Freedom
19 Crusade" to demand payment of the election campaign promissory notes
20 on Civil Rights Legislation.

22 This article stated further that the National Office of the 23 CRC announced that the conference would be held at the AFL Laborer's
24 Union auditorium in Washington.

26 This article stated further that sponsors of the conference
27 and the "Freedom Crusade" included Dr. Albert Einstein and others.

14 On January 30, 1949 an article appeared in "The 15 Worker" under the caption "World Protests Mount on Trial of 16 Twelve", which stated that from Laredo, Texas to Warsaw, Poland, 17 from the negro and white workers of a southern plant to the 18 council uniting of Polish artists, writers and actors, the 19 people were voicing their protests against sampling of the 20 names -- and the sentiments -- of those who were demanding
21 of President Truman that the trial be stopped; and those con-
22 demning the biased jury system under which the trial proceeded.
23

24 Among the names and organizations set out in the 25 article which protested the trial of the twelve was, "The 26 Freedom Crusade's Call" under which was stated "the entire 27 leadership of the Communist Party, a legal political party,
28 has been indicted for teaching the social science of Marxism."
29 According to the article, Dr. Albert Einstein was among the 30 signers of the call.

The letterhead of the "National Council of American Socialist Friends" which was a very new letterhead, it was not left over from old stock. On the list of sponsors were thirty-seven college and university professors. The prominence of these thirty-seven was attested by the fact that in every case he was listed in "Who's Who in America". [REDACTED] named four of these individuals who were outstanding names in the field of education, one of whom was Albert Einstein, President of Institute of Atomic Energy.

13 The Bureau received a memorandum from the Chief 14 of Naval Intelligence dated February 15, 1949, entitled 15 "Subversive Trends of Current Interest" on February 18, 1949.

17 This memorandum carried a heading entitled "Anti-18 Military Propaganda". Under this heading it was stated that 19 in a report issued February 13, 1949, the Pacifist National 20 Council Against Conscription accused the armed forces of 21 campaigning for military control of United States policies.
22 This organization, which was cited by the California Legis-
23 lative Committee as a Communist "front", described what it
24 considered a "marked trend toward military control over 25 American life and institutions." The report carried out the 26 usual Communist attack against military appropriations, mili-
27 tary personnel in government positions, the Draft Act, mili-
28 tary strength and educational institutions and universal mili-
29 tary training. Among the prominent persons issuing the report
30 was Albert Einstein and four other individuals.

The February 1949 issue of the Washington Times Herald carried an article under the caption "Einstein Joins In Protest of Military Might" which stated that Professor Albert Einstein and seventeen other prominent citizens asserted the day before that "the marked trend toward military control over American life" had grown more dangerous than ever in the past year.

The article stated that in a 64 page report published by the National Council Against Conscription, they accused the Army of expending nearly four million dollars during the fiscal year of 1948 on "propaganda" to undermine the American tradition of civilian control.

The article further stated that the group was concerned over the "dominant position" of Defense Secretary Forrestal "in the making of foreign policy", and roundly denounced President Truman's plan for universal military training.

According to this article signers of the report included Chancellor Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University, authors, Pearl Buck and Louis Bromfield, and others.

On January 12, 1949, the Bureau received an ONI report from Chief of Navy Intelligence dated January 4, 1949, entitled "Subversive Trends of Current Interest". (In page 2 of this report appeared the heading "Freedom Crusade". Under this heading it was stated in part that the latest attempt of the Communist Party and its "front", the Civil Rights Congress, to lobby in Washington was the announcement of a "Freedom Crusade" to be made to Washington on February 17,

Under the above article appeared the following comment: "Briefly, the Freedom Crusade will be preceded by a national Civil Rights Conference which, according to the Communist press, will map plans for 'an offensive by the American people to end 'second class citizenship' for the Negro people, trade unionists, Communists, progressives, liberals, and all other racial, religious, and political minorities'. Note among the sponsors of this movement were Dr. Albert Einstein and Communist Hugh Brown, President of CIO's machine tools and stewards."

17 *Communist Plot Against Atomic Scientists
18 (Summary)

19 Washington, April 19

20
21 The Ur-American Activities C-tee declares that recent 22 so-called 'peace' congress organized by the Communists
23 at New York, had aimed at provoking atomic scientists
24 into making statements against the USA.
25

26 This conference, officially known as the Scientific 27 and Cultural Conference for International Peace, was 28 a part of a campaign against the North Atlantic Pact, 29 it also was a "super-mobilization" of the Communist
30 forces and of their sympathizers.
31

32 It was a prelude to the International Conference
33 for Peace which will open in Paris on April 20, headed 34 by the French Communist and atomic scientist, Frederic
35 Joliot-Curie. O. John Rogge, former US Assistant 36 Attorney General, will be a Vice-Chairman of this 37 Conference.
38

39 Richard Royer (phon.) called for 'Civic dis-40 obedience' at the New York Conference, appealing to 41 atomic scientists, Harlow Shapley, Wm. Higinbotham, Walter
42 Orr Roberts, Philip Morrison, Victor Weisskopf, Oswald
43 Veblen and Albert Einstein....

The "Washington Times Herald" on February 21, 1949, carried an article entitled "Five Russian Figures Plan to Visit United States". This article stated in part that five of the Soviet Union's top cultural figures, headed by composer
Lmitri Shostakovitch, were planning to visit the United States the following month under the auspices of the Left Wing National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

14 to the Office of the ABC at New York City a brief case which 15 was found at the Blossom Luncheonette, 526 Fifth Avenue, 16 New York City. Papers therein referred to the Council on Atomic 17 Implications at the University of Southern California. From 18 the papers it was determined that the case belonged to 19 Dr. Albert Gottlieb who was named as the Executive Secretary of 20 the Council.

21 In the material, contained in the brief case, was a 22 handwritten draft outlining the aims of the Council. Under 23 "Promotion" was listed "Facsimile letters by some famous names 24 (Einstein, Lillenthal, Oppenheimer, Wex, etc.)" And under 25 "Music" was listed "Gramophone record by Albert Einstein, etc."

The "Counterattack" sent out a Special Supplement with its March 18, 1949, issue. This Supplement carried a discussion on the World Congress of Intellectuals held in Wroclaw, Poland in August, 1948. The U.S. section of this congress was to be held March 25-27, 1949, in New York City. It was disguised as a "Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace", under auspices of the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions. The Supplement also carried a "Condensed Who's Who of some of the leading Communists who are to speak in the congress or are sponsoring it .... plus a few other well-known sponsors who aren't CP members (at least not openly) but have supported Communist fronts."

15 The following is a translation of an item taken from 16 the March 27, 1949, issue of "Austria" in reference to the 17 Leftist connections of Albert Einstein: "Albert Einstein, 18 Professor of Mathematics and Physics, recently celebrated his 19 70th birthday in Princeton, New Jersey. Einstein is one of 20 the co-signers and chief representatives of a scientific
21 theory, the so-called theory of Relativity, the correctness
22 of which possibly will be proved in the future. Einstein
23 owes his fame to this theory as well as to his great clever-
24 ness in launching himself before the public. Politically,
25 Einstein has affiliated himself in America with extreme Left;
26 his name was mentioned frequently in this connection in con-
27 junction with the distressing case of the visit of Madame 28 Curie, and because of his letter to the pseudo-scientific 29 Communist Congress in Warsaw."

Columnist George Sokolsky reported in his column, entitled "These Days", which appeared in the Washington "Times Herald" of March 25, 1949, regarding the World Congress of Intellectuals in Defense of Peace held at Wroclaw, Poland and the second one which was held in New York City. Sokolsky stated that these conferences were designed to mobilize intellectual propaganda against the United States. He quoted the following message sent by Albert Einstein to Wroclaw: "I hope with all my heart that you will succeed in assembling open-minded personalities with real courage for your important gathering."

In the May, 1949 issue of "The German American", New York, appeared an article on page 12 entitled, "Artists and Intellectuals in Favor of Peace." It reported that from March 25, to 27th a Conference for World Peace was held in New York which was called by the "National Council of Arts, Sciences, and Professions." Sponsors of the conference were important artists, writers, and scientists. Albert Einstein's name appeared on the list of sponsors. According to the article the conference was a great success and helped the cause of peace to a vast extent throughout the world. It further stated that foreign delegates from the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Yugoslavia, Poland, and other countries were to speak in the country at public meetings for the idea of peace, but the State Department forced them to leave the Country after the conference.

There appeared in the same issue of the above-mentioned magazine several items pertaining to [REDACTED] 67X

13 April 19, 1949, from Paris to Secretary of State which was received through 14 liaison channels on April 21, 1949.
15

16 This telegram stated in part that "Humanite" of that date gave front
17 page publicity to the arrival of "Soviet, American, Czechoslovak, Rumanian, 18 Polish and Israel delegation"; further that another delegate (Feinglass)
19 attended, according to "Humanite," on April 16, the Limoges Congress CGT 20 Leather and Fur Workers Federation where he branded the Atlantic Pact as 21 "war instrument" and "effort on part of trusts and American Army to establish 22 bases against Soviet Union"; further that he added that "Atlantic Pact and 23 Marshall Plan are inspired by desire for war" and "misery and unemployment 24 increase in Marshallized countries while undeniable economic improvement is 25 observed countries outside plan".
26

27 The telegram stated further that "Humanite" of that day further cited 28 greetings received by Congress from Bishop Arthur Moulton as well as Golbert, 29 representing American Committee Jewish Writers, Artists and Men of Science
30 of which Albert Einstein was Honorary President.

14 The Washington Times Herald of April 19, 1949, carried an 15 article entitled "Paris Parley Aimed at US, Say Probers". This article
16 stated in part that the House Un-American Activities Committee said
17 on the previous day that the Communists had engineered the Paris Peace
18 Conference to stir atomic and other scientists to disobey their govern-19 ments.

21 The article stated further that the Committee accentuated
22 the "Civil Disobedience" angle at the New York meeting, saying:

23 "It is by no means accidental that Richard Boyer's appeal
24 for 'Civil Disobedience' was directed to an audience which included
25 the following atomic scientists:
26

27 "Harlow Shapley, of Harvard University....and Albert Einstein,

12 The "New York Times" of April 20, 1949, published an article
13 captioned "Charge by House Unit Denied by Communist." The article re-
14 ported that Richard O. Boyer, Communist writer, charged that the House
15 Committee on Un-American Activities made a remark about him in an effort
16 to discredit the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace held 17 in March 1949, at the Waldorf-Astoria. It was further stated that the 18 House Committee asserted that Mr. Boyer had advocated civil disobedience
19 at a conference session to an audience that included Dr. Albert Einstein, 20 Dr. Harlow William Shapley and other scientists, some of them engaged in 21 atomic work. Mr. Boyer stated that neither Dr. Einstein, Dr. Shapley 22 nor the other scientists mentioned by the Committee were present when 23 this paper was read.

advised the New York Office that the "Monthly Review" 66 Barrow Street, New York City, self proclaimed "an independent Socialist magazine" made its initial appearance in May of 1949. The first issue contained articles by Albert Einstein and others. This report stated further that a study of the articles contained in a background check of the editors and contributors revealed that this magazine was Communist inspired, and followed the approved Communist Party line.

mentioned the "workshop for peace" (believed to refer to the peace meetings being called by Professor Einstein and others in Washington, D. C.). He asserted that communists should infiltrate this movement and give leadership to it. [REDACTED] pointed out that it was essential to build the Progressive Party. He also urged action in our position to the Atlantic Pact, including leaflets, resolutions, mass mobilizations, telegrams, petitions and so forth.

13 On May 11, 1949 an article appeared in the "Daily
14 Worker" under the caption of "Church and Civic Leaders to Meet 15 Against War Pact," which stated that a meeting of church and 16 civic leaders to "make their opposition to the North Atlantic
17 Pact Manifest" had been called for May 20 and 21 in Washington
18 D. C. by Albert Einstein, Thomas Mann, Emily Green Balch, 19 Bishop W. J. Walls and Reverend Edwin Dalbert.

20
21 The article stated that the letter calling the conference
22 was read to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that day by 23 James Embree who appeared as an opposition witness to the Pact
24 and representing the Progressive Party of New Jersey.

25 According to the article, the letter described the 26 conference as a non-delegated meeting of leaders of civic,
27 church, labor and community organizations. "No responsibility
28 seemed as urgent as the need for all of us to find common 29 grounds to make our stand for a real and lasting peace," the call said

12 In the May 15, 1949, issue of "Russky Golos," a Russian language
13 newspaper, appeared an article entitled "In the Name of the Real Peace."
14 It concerned a letter from a group of prominent scientists and writers, 15 including Albert Einstein, calling for a conference of representatives of 16 lay and church organizations for strengthening peace.

an Indianapolis letter dated May 17, 1949 entitled
"National Council of American-Soviet Friendship; Internal Security-C" contained information to the effect that [REDACTED] had advised that sometime in the middle of May he received a long distance call from a representative of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship inviting him to attend a meeting in Washington, D. C. The individual who called him indicated that among others, Professor Einstein could attend, along with five prominent unnamed individuals. [REDACTED]

Further advised that on May 17, he received a letter signed by Richard Morford, Executive Director of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, inviting him to attend a conference to be held commencing on May 20, 1949 in the Cosmos Club, Washington, D. C., which conference was to be devoted largely to a discussion of the North Atlantic Pact. b7C

15 The Bureau received a letter dated May 19, 1949 on the 16 letterhead of the Scientists Committee of Loyalty Problems, 14
17 Battle Road, Princeton, New Jersey, signed by Lyman Spitzer, Jr., 18 Chairman, which enclosed a letter which the Committee was con-
19 sidering sending to several journals with a wide distribution
20 among scientists. The letter stated that it was the Committee's 21 belief that the recommendations in the letter would be possibly 22 helpful to the Bureau and inquired if the Bureau cared to com-
23 ment.

24
25 The enclosed letter mentioned above, stated that in past
26 investigations, Agents of the FBI obtained information from friends, 27 neighbors, and colleagues of the person to be cleared, as well as 28 from less direct sources. The results were collected in a con-
29 fidential dossier in which the sources of information were anon-30 ymous or revealed only to a real limited number of officials. The 31 letter continued that it was obvious that these unacknowledgeable
32 statements could cause serious misunderstandings which could not 33 easily be clarified, especially in cases where the clearance
34 not with difficulties.

35
36 It is, therefore, strongly recommended that all scientists
37 adhere to the following rules whenever possible.

38
39 (1) When giving information to loyalty and security
40 investigators, state willingness to testify if necessary.

41
42 (2) Prepare a signed, written statement of the information
43 for the investigating agency."

45 Signers of this letter included Albert Einstein whose 46 name also appeared in the letterhead of the Scientists Committee
47 on Loyalty Problems.

16 The New York "Compass" of May 20, 1949, carried 17 an article entitled "Phony Scares May Cripple Atom Pro-18 jects" by Albert Deutsch. This article stated in part that 19 "One regards with fascinative horror the antics of the 20 political hacks in Congress who, acting out of their monu-
21 mental ignorance are hysterically striving to put free
22 American science on a party line basis". ----

23
24 Further that "Somebody ought to tell them the 25 shaping of the atom bomb was made possible by a bunch of 26 foreigners and refugees like Nils Bohr, Albert Einstein, 27 Leo Szilard, Enrico Fermi and Lise Meitner. Out of every ten 28 leading atomic scientists only one was an American. Even 29 avowed Communists like Frederick Joliot-Curie, head of the 30 French Atomic Energy Commission, played an important role in 31 the development of atomic science."

12 On May 20, 1949, [REDACTED] b7C
13 of the University of Chicago was called as a witness before the 14 Seditious Activities Investigation Commission of the State of 15 Illinois with reference to their investigation of the University
16 of Chicago and of Roosevelt College.
17

18 During the above mentioned testimony, reference was 19 made to a copy of the April 4, 1949 issue of "Life" magazine,
20 which on pages 42 and 43 contained the pictures of fifty individ-
21 uals under the heading, "Fellow Travelers Dress up the Foreign 22 Front". [REDACTED] stated it "disgraceful."
23

24 b7C [REDACTED] was asked in his opinion, Albert Einstein
25 was a fellow traveller, to which Dr. Hutchins replied, "They 26 are all fellow travelers. The doctrine of guilt begins to run
27 rank."
28

29 [REDACTED] of the Commission then stated to 30 [REDACTED] that when they had another witness on the stand,
31 b7C it would be pertinent to produce the record of Einstein. "Now,
32 fifteen of the fifty individuals here, or 30% of the total,
33 are educators. Whether or not "Life" magazine has been consid-
34 ered fair in its selection, so far as any individual is con-
35 cerned, I think you would not disagree that these people, by 36 and large, are the ones found oftenest supporting Communist 37 organizations?"
38

39 b7C [REDACTED] replied that he did not remember the 40 names of them, that he had seen their names and, "I take it you 41 mean here many people referred to as Communist are members of 42 these organizations referred to as Communist front organizations."
43

44 b7C [REDACTED] asked him if he was not aware that the 45 Communist front organization was a part of the Communist move-46 ment, just as the Party, itself, and that it was designed to 47 serve functions which the Communist Party could not fulfill...
48 One of the chief functions being that of enlisting the prestige 49 of university professors, and to use those professors in 50 campaigns of indoctrination, assemblies among students or other b7c A pretext telephone call made by Bureau Agent on December 16, 1949, to [REDACTED] of the "Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact," revealed that the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact originated in the end of May, 1949. According to [REDACTED] the committee was an outgrowth of the Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the North Atlantic Pact, held May 20 and 21, 1949, at the Cosmos Club in Washington, D. C.

b7c This meeting, according to [REDACTED] was initiated by Doctor Albert Einstein and four other individuals. The meeting was attended by approximately 600 persons, and certain resolutions were passed on the peaceful settlement to the difficulties facing the world by other means than the passage of the "North Atlantic Pact Bill."

b2, b7D [REDACTED] advised that the resolutions passed at the Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact in Washington, D. C., on May 20, and 21, 1949, included the following:

"This resolution and the two accompanying resolutions on the Foreign Ministers Conference and on Organizing for Peace were adopted at a Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact, held at the Assembly Hall of the Cosmos Club, Washington, D. C., on May 20 and 21, 1949. The conference was initiated by Miss Emily Greene Balch, the Reverend Edwin T. Dahlberg, Doctor Albert Einstein, Thomas Mann and Bishop W. J. Walls. Some 500 additional persons gave their support to the purposes of the conference."

of the New York Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, departed for Mexico City. Material in her possession was made available to the New York Field Division (source not given). Among other documents, she had a "Call for an Inter-American Congress for Peace" to be held in Mexico City on August 1, 1949. It was believed her trip to Mexico was on behalf of the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions (ASP) to participate in preparations for the Peace Conference to be held in Mexico. She also had in her possession a number of 3x5 cards with names and addresses of individuals frequently identified with activities of ASP and it was believed these cards constituted a mailing list to be used in connection with the "call" for delegates to the Congress. One card bore the name of Albert Einstein, 112 Mercer Street, Princeton, New Jersey.

11 The July 4, 1949, issue of the "Daily Worker"
12 carried an article entitled "Ten Thousand Demand Athens 13 End Execution of Prisoners". This article stated in part
14 that the "American Council for a Democratic Greece" announced 15 that a petition bearing ten thousand signatures requesting 16 application of the Geneva Convention to military and civilian
17 prisoners in Greece had been sent to the national Red Cross.
18 This article stated further that these signatures included
19 Albert Einstein and others.

12 On August 9, 1949, the "Daily Worker" carried an 13 article under the caption "Communist Party Blasts Arms Bill at 14 House Hearing" which stated that on that day, the Communist 15 Party appearing before the House Foreign Affairs Committee
16 castigated President Truman's Military Assistance Program
17 as "one of the most desperate acts which Congress could take 18 towards unleashing a new war."

19
20 According to the article, those appearing before the 21 Committee in opposition to the Program were: Arnold Johnson, 22 the Party's national legislative director; Dr. R.E.B. Du Bois, 23 representing both the Council on African Affairs and the 24 American Continental Congress for Peace which was to be held 25 in Mexico in September; Harold Buchman, appearing for the 26 Progressive Party; and Miss Jule T. Banchard, who represented 27 the Washington Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the 28 Atlantic Pact.

29
30 The article stated that the Washington Conference
31 on Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact was formed in 32 May, 1949, and that its sponsors included Dr. Albert Einstein,
33 Bishop W.J. Walls, Dr. Thomas Mann, and Miss Emily Greene
34 Balch, 1946 Nobel Peace Prize winner.

b2/b7D A copy of the brief protesting the conviction of the Communist Party attorneys who conducted the trial of the eleven Communist Party leaders was furnished the Chicago Office [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] statement in the appendix of that brief expressed alarm at the conviction of those lawyers and criticized the courts of the United States for action taken in regard to that matter. That statement was signed by five individuals, one of whom was Professor Albert Einstein.

A pretext telephone call made by a Bureau Agent to Miss Julie T. Bouchard, Executive Director of the Continuations Committee of the Conference for Peaceful Alternatives on December 17, 1949, revealed that the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives originated at the end of May, 1949, and that it was an outgrowth of the Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact held May 20 through 21, 1949, at the Cosmos Club at Washington, D. C. Initiating sponsors according to Miss Bouchard, included Dr. Albert Einstein and three other individuals. Those individuals were also included among the group of initiating sponsors of the Mid-Century Conference for Peace held at Chicago, Illinois, May 29 and 30, 1950.

The Chicago office advised by memorandum January 20, 1950, that that office had received a letter sent out by the "Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists", 856 East 58th Street, Chicago, Illinois, dated January 11, 1950. This letter was received through a confidential post office box in the name of John Adams, Box 999, Chicago 90, Illinois, through which box a subscription to this magazine was maintained. The letter was an appeal for donations and set out that the "Bulletin" had never been self-supporting. A $7,500 fund was being sought to enable the publication to continue.

The letterhead of this letter had printed on its left margin the identities of the editor and the members of the Board of Sponsors, together with the Institution each represented. The name of Albert Einstein, Institute for Advanced Study, appeared under the list of Board of Sponsors.

In the February, 1950, issue of "Demokratische Post (New Germany)," a German newspaper published in Mexico City, appeared an article entitled "Crusade Against Peace." The article reported that Congressman John E. Rankin made "bold and unashamed attacks against Albert Einstein," because he spoke about peace. It further stated that "If this humanity succeeds in preventing a new war and stopping the complete destruction of all culture by new H-atomic weapons....Albert Einstein's great crime is that he warned against this."

14 The Daily Worker of February 1, 1950, carried an article
15 entitled "Einstein, Mann Blast Threat to Lawyers". This article
16 stated in part that Albert Einstein, Thomas Mann, Professor Thomas 17 Emerson and thirteen other distinguished Americans on the previous 18 day denounced the trend toward disciplinary action against lawyers
19 who defend "political minorities, racial minorities, and labor organi-20 zations."

21
22 The article stated further that such actions right destroy 23 the right to a fair trial and adequate legal counsel as guaranteed by 24 the Sixth Amendment to the American Constitution; further that the 25 statement mentioned the contempt sentences by Judge Medina against 26 the five lawyers, counsel for the eleven Communist leaders, who were 27 sentenced to from one to six months in jail.

11 On February 9, 1950, the Bureau received from ONI
12 a confidential ONI report, dated February 2, 1950, 13 captioned "Report on Maritime and Union Activities." Under the 14 heading, Union Party Fronts and Controlled Organizations
15 appeared the name of three organizations one of which was the 16 "Lawyers Defense Committee". On page four of this report
17 appeared a brief summary on the "Lawyers Defense Committee".
18 This summary stated that the captioned committee on the 19 previous day had released a statement over the signature of 20 sixteen Communist persons, including such names as Albert
21 Einstein, Dr. Thomas Mann, etc; the statement indicated that 22 the signers were alarmed at recent acts of judicial censure;
23 in particular, it referred to the recent convictions of the 24 lawyers who defended the eleven Communists, and to the contempt
25 citation against the lawyer for Harry Bridges.

26 Underneath the summary appeared the following,
27 "DIO-2 MD Comment: the sixteen signers are all well-known 28 professional people, who are constant signers of the 29 Communist Party sponsored petitions."

The February 3, 1950, issue of "Counterattack" reported under the caption "Einstein and Other Leaders Support Another Communist Cause" that the Communists released a statement of 16 prominent people to persuade the public that the five CP lawyers sentenced by Federal Judge Medina really got a dirty deal. The statement denounced the disciplining of lawyers who defend "political minorities, racial minorities and labor organizations." The article called their statement a summary of rest of the falsehoods in the CP's campaign to smear Judge Medina. Included on the list who signed this statement was Albert Einstein.

The "Counterattack" was a weekly publication, copyrighted by American Business Consultants, Inc. It was located at 55 West 42nd Street, New York City.

The "Daily Worker" of February 1, 1950, announced that Albert Einstein, Thomas Mann and fourteen other individuals on January 31, 1950, denounced the "trend toward disciplinary action against lawyers who defend political minorities, racial minorities and labor organizations in the probe."

According to these individuals such actions "may destroy the right to a fair trial and adequate legal counsel as guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment of the American Constitution".

b2, b7D [REDACTED] advised that a news release from the Lawyers Defense Committee concerned the statement of Professor Einstein and the others quoting the statement in full, which, it was hoped, would be printed in the various newspapers throughout the country.

The synopsis of this referende states that a Lawyers Defense Committee was formed to assist in defending the five lawyers who represented Communist Party leaders against charges that they violated the Smith Act and Eugene Dennis defendant, who acted as our lawyer, bited for contempt of court, by Judge Harold A. Medina presiding Judge of trial.

20 This article stated further that Professor Fuchs
21 said that Professor Einstein after reading the younger Fuchs'
22 papers on Nuclear energy, considered him valuable to the allied 23 war effort.

24 This article stated further that Professor Einstein's

"The Star Telegram" Fort Worth, Texas of February 7, 1950 carried an editorial captioned "Soviet War Espionage" by James M. North, Junior editor. The following is quoted from this article: "Unfortunately, for forging the links that lead to the development of the atomic bomb, the United States, Britain and Canada were dependent upon great scientists of Germany, Denmark, Italy and other nations. To list only a few, Albert Einstein, Lise Meitner, Enrico Fermi and Neils Bor contributed to the epochal discovery. Fundamentally, scientific research is international, and can not be limited within national frontiers."

12 The May 21, 1949 issue of the New York "World Telegram"
13 published an article entitled "Russia Clamps Iron Curtain Down
14 on Jews," by Frederick Holtzman. The article recalls the visit 15 of two Russians who visited the Jews of America as good will 16 ambassadors and who "sold a bill of goods to many prominent 17 Americans who lent their names to it." Albert Einstein was 18 listed as one of them.

19 The article further stated that the Jewish Anti-20 Fascist Committee in Russia had been liquidated.

On May 30, 1949 the "Daily Worker" carried an article under the caption "Capital Farley Maps Drive on Atlantic Pact", which stated that in the opinion of members of the Conference on Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact, if the American people were given the facts, the North Atlantic Pact and Arms Program could be blocked.

According to the article, the Conference on Peaceful Alternatives was the Conference held in Washington, D. C. the previous week-end by 125 civic leaders at the call of Albert Einstein, Thomas Mann, Miss Emily Green Balch, Bishop W. J. Walls and Rev. Edwin Dahlberg.

The article further stated that the Conference dedicated itself to "informing and organizing American opinion" for the defeat of the pact, for a solution of the German question and for the proposition that "peace between the two systems represented by the United States and the USSR could be achieved through conference, negotiation and agreement for the settlement of all outstanding differences."

14 The Washington Star of February 8, 1950 carried an 15 article entitled "Red Espionage At Peak Now, Lawmakers Say 16 After Hearing Hoover" by Cecil Holland.

17 Under the subheading "Einstein Aide Denies Story"
18 this article stated that Senator Ferguson, Republican of 19 Michigan said he was asking Attorney General McGrath to try
20 to extradite Fuchs from Britain for trial in an American 21 court; further that meanwhile, the secretary of Albert Einstein, 22 noted physicist said that she knew nothing about the British 23 scientist and could find no records of him in Dr. Einstein's
24 files; further that there had been reported that Dr. Einstein
25 interceded to get Fuchs released from a Canadian concentration
26 camp early in World War II, so that he could return to England 27 where he became active in atomic research.

28
29 This article stated further that the secretary Helen 30 Dukas told the Associated Press in Princeton, New Jersey where 31 Einstein lived "I remember nothing whatever about the case".

On Page 17 of this document was an article on Dr. Albert Einstein who appeared on Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's first weekly television show on February 12, 1950, taken from the "New York Times" of February 13, 1950.

According to this article Dr. Albert Einstein condemned the idea of security through armament as a "disastrous illusion"; condemned these by-products of the military policy of our nation: "concentration of tremendous financial power in the hands of the military, militarization of youth, close supervision of the loyalty of the citizens, in particular of the civil servants, by a police force growing more conspicuous every day, intimidation of people of independent political thinking, indoctrination of the public by radio press and school, and the growing restriction of the range of public information under the pressure of military secrecy----

"---the first problem is to do away with mutual fear and distrust. Clean renunciation of violence (not only with respect to means of mass destruction) is undoubtedly necessary"---
